

Coaches' Code of Conduct

I hereby pledge to live up to my duties as a Rome- Floyd Parks and Recreation Coach by following the Rome-Floyd Parks and Recreation Coaches' Code of Conduct.

- I will place the emotional and physical well-being of my players ahead of a personal desire to win.
- I will treat each player as an individual, remembering the large range of emotional and physical development for the same age group.
- I will do my best to provide a safe playing situation for my players.
- I promise to review and practice basic first aid principles needed to treat injuries of my players.
- I will do my best to organize practices that are fun and challenging for all my players.
- I will lead by example in demonstrating fair play and sportsmanship to all my players.
- I will provide a sports environment for my team that is free of drugs, tobacco, and alcohol, and I will refrain from their use at all youth sports events.
- I will be knowledgeable in the rules of each sport that I coach, and I will teach these rules to my players.
- I will use those coaching techniques appropriate for all of the skills that I teach.
- I will remember that I am a youth sports coach, and that the game is for children and not adults.
- I will respect the officials of each game.
- I will take full responsibility for the spectators of my team.
- I will teach my players the importance of proper sportsmanship and show respect to game officials, the opposing teams coaches, player, and spectators.

A violation of the Coaches' Code of Conduct may result in ejection, suspension, or even a lifetime ban.
